

Recovery Planning

- We are calling it Re-Design instead of Recovery
- Opportunity to "Think Big"
- Three areas of focus: Academic Proficiency, Social Emotional Well-Being, Engagement
- Needs-Assessment (Due April 15 to the Agency of Education) drafted in terms of three focus areas
- Plan needs to be at the SU level
- Planning process will begin next week with leadership team
- Needs Assessment and Plan needs to be submitted to the AOE through the Grant Management System as supporting documentation for ESSER 2 and ESSER 3

Universal Design for Learning

- Will be part of Re-Design plan
- Today the OESU Leadership team worked with our UDL consultant, Jen Patenaude during our leadership team meeting
- Jen Patenaude will present during a fall SU-wide in-service day to all staff and will work next year with a cohort of teachers already engaged in the OESU co-teaching model
